AN ROI ANALYSIS FOR DMV SITES

Getting the green light

Cost justification is more critical in purchasing decisions now than it has ever been. Organizations must contend with smaller and smaller budgets while dealing with increased end user and customer expectations – especially when it comes to workflow efficiency and how long it takes to complete a seemingly simple task. But even the spending that does get approved takes longer, goes through more review, and needs more justification.

Imprivata OneSign® has been proven at organizations globally, and across every vertical, to result in tangible ROI. No matter the size of the organization, true ROI is achievable.
