

The Imprivata Connect UnSummit forum: Here's where you get to color outside the lines.

In addition to the opportunity to share and learn, network with peers, and help shape our solution direction, we have another great reason for you to join us at Imprivata Connect, our exclusive one-day customer event.

At the event's UnSummit forum, you can participate in a unique, dynamic, crowd-sourced discussion. This non-traditional, empowering session turns the tables. You help build the agenda and shape open, collaborative exchanges by proposing session topics that are relevant and valuable to you. That could include exploring gold standard approaches, digging into technical details, or tackling emerging trends.

For example:

Scaling Imprivata
