Can I be a speaker?	If you are interested in giving a keynote address, please reach out to Tricia Wise-Fahim, Customer Advocacy Program Manager to discuss how to get involved: Connect@imprivata.com .

What should I do next if I am confirmed as a speaker for this event?	Once you are confirmed as a customer speaker and have completed the speaker agreement, Customer advocacy will manage the logistics supporting you ahead of the event: from travel and accommodations to presentation drafting and prep, we're here to support you as much or as little as you choose.
My session includes a presentation. When do I need to submit the presentation?	When you sign on, we'll walk you through the whole process, but presentations should be finalized no later than two weeks ahead of the event date.
Can I use my own computer to run the presentation?	No – your presentation will be queued up on a main computer that's already set up with the a/v and slide changer for your ease of use. We'll make sure you're comfortable before the presentation.
What is the agenda?	Imprivata Connect will begin at 9:00am with registration and breakfast followed by customer stories and product-focused roadmap. We'll also have time for an "UnSummit" portion of the conference whereby you vote on and select the topics in which you'd like to participate. The agenda for each location will vary based on speakers and will be included on the registration pages.
What is an UnSummit?	An UnSummit is where you help build the agenda! This is a participant-driven experience where you'll have session topics you can choose from as well as the opportunity to propose session topics, you're passionate about – whether you want to lead the conversation or just join one. Come prepared to share an idea, a question, or a challenge you'd like to explore with others. No slide decks or formal presentations required – just your curiosity and willingness to collaborate.
Will there be networking opportunities or 1:1 time with Imprivata experts?	Yes, absolutely. We plan for: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Designed networking sessions to connect peers, partners, and Imprivata staff.• 1:1 consultations or small group sessions with product specialists, engineers, and support teams.• Happy hour to close out each day
Is virtual attendance an option?	No
